BTC Automotive Technology
Job Sheet: SP9 – Shock Repair

Objective:  To familiarize student with the procedure of replacing a typical shock absorber.

Procedure:  Document vehicle. List a complaint associated with the vehicle if applicable. Record procedures as described below. Student must be time efficient in all activities and must not exceed 2 times flat rate. Repair quality must be at an acceptable industry standard.

Vehicle:  ____________________________________________________________

Complaint:  _________________________________________________________

☐ Inspect and test shock absorbers. Record test method and results.

______________________________________________________________

☐ Inspect shock mounts and bolts for wear or damage and record condition.

______________________________________________________________

☐ Remove and replace shock absorbers.