BTC Automotive Technology

Job Sheet: EL1 - Accessories repair

Objective: To familiarize student with the repair of a typical problem with a vehicle accessory. It is understood that a wiring diagram will be utilized as required.

Procedure: Check off the type of failure you are repairing. Diagnose system as required. Attach any wiring diagrams used.

Vehicle: __________________________________________________________

Complaint:

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in a motor-driven circuit (such as power antenna, power seat, etc…) and record the failure below.

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in a heated glass circuit and record the failure below.

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in a cruise control circuit and record the failure below.

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in audio system and record the failure below.

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in security system and record the failure below.

• Record cause of failure here: _________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________

• Summarize procedures used to diagnose failure: _________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________

• List tools used to diagnose failure: _________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________