BTC Automotive Technology
Job Sheet: ELJ – Blower circuit repair

Objective: To familiarize student with the repair of a typical problem with a blower motor circuit accessory. It is understood that a wiring diagram will be utilized as required.

Procedure: Diagnose system as required. Attach any wiring diagrams used.

Vehicle: __________________________________________________________

Complaint: ______________________________________________________

- Diagnose the cause of failure in a blower motor circuit and record the failure below.
  - Record cause of failure here: _______________________________________
    ________________________________________________________________
  - Summarize procedures used to diagnose failure: _______________________
    ________________________________________________________________
  - List tools used to diagnose failure: _________________________________
    ________________________________________________________________

Related NATEF tasks:
- Blower circuit repair ELJ.doc