BTC Automotive Technology

Job Sheet: EL7 – Horn circuit repair

Objective: To familiarize student with the repair of a typical horn circuit problem. It is understood that a wiring diagram will be utilized as required.

Procedure: Diagnose system as required. Attach any wiring diagrams used.

Vehicle: ____________________________________________________________

Complaint: _______________________________________________________

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in a horn circuit and record the failure below.

_________________________________________________________________

• Record cause of failure here: _______________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

• Summarize procedures used to diagnose failure: _________________________

_________________________________________________________________

• List tools used to diagnose failure: _____________________________________

_________________________________________________________________