BTC Automotive Technology
Job Sheet:  ELF – Interior light circuit repair

Objective: To familiarize student with the repair of a typical interior lighting system failure. It is understood that a wiring diagram will be utilized as required.

Procedure: Diagnose system as required. Attach any wiring diagrams used.

Vehicle: ___________________________________________________________

Complaint: _________________________________________________________

☐ Diagnose the cause of failure in an interior light circuit and record the failure below.

• Record cause of failure here: __________________________________________
  ________________________________________________________________

• Summarize procedures used to diagnose failure: _________________________
  ________________________________________________________________

• List tools used to diagnose failure: ________________________________
  ________________________________________________________________

Related NATEF tasks:
Interior light circuit repairELF.doc