BTC Automotive Technology
Job Sheet: EN8 – Oil Consumption Diagnosis

Objective: To diagnose the cause of excessive oil consumption.

Procedure: Document vehicle. Record procedures as described below. Student must be time efficient in all activities and must not exceed 2 times flat rate. Repair quality must be at an acceptable industry standard. Repair order must be attached.

Vehicle: ____________________________________________________________

Complaint (if any): ________________________________________________

☐ Inspect vehicle for external oil leaks and note findings: ______________________

____________________________________________________________________

☐ Inspect vehicle for excessive exhaust smoke indicating oil control problems and note findings:

____________________________________________________________________

☐ List diagnostic methods used in diagnosis such as oil dye or visual inspection:

____________________________________________________________________

Related NATEF tasks: Oil consumption diagnosis EN8.doc