Objective: To practice engine diagnosis and analysis.

Procedure: Diagnose rough idle and record information below. Track diagnosis time.

Vehicle: __________________________________________________________

NOTE: This job sheet is intended to be used on a vehicle that actually runs rough!

- Inspect vehicle and verify complaint.
- Diagnose failure and record all procedures used in diagnosis below.
  ________________________________________________________________
  ________________________________________________________________
  ________________________________________________________________
  ________________________________________________________________
- Record time spent. _______
- Record cause of failure. __________________________________________
  ________________________________________________________________